Imports and Exports Fall Sharply

WASHINGTON (AP) — Exports and imports both fell sharply in January, the Commerce Department reported today, as the longshoremen's strike virtually halted traffic in and out of Atlantic and Gulf Coast ports.

Exports were valued at $2.1 billion on a seasonally adjusted basis, a 28 per cent decrease from the previous month. At the same time incoming shipments fell to just under $2 billion, off nearly 34 per cent from the previous month.

Asst. Secretary William H. Chartener, said exports were ahead of imports for the month by $115.6 million, but added, "Because of the extremely disrupting impact of the dock strike, no general significance can be read into the January trade balance."

The strike had almost no impact on imports of fuels because they are unloaded automatically, Chartener said. This was the only category of imports to show an increase from December, he said.

The export figures would have been lower, he said, except for an upsurge in overland shipments of automotive parts and assemblies to Canada, as well as greater reliance on air cargo carriers.

Les Halles Gets Brass Sendoff

By JOHN VINCOUR
Associated Press Writer
PARIS (AP) — Les Halles, the belly of Paris, got a brass band sendoff before dawn today but somehow it seemed inadequate for an end to 900 years of history and tradition.

The famed central market where revellers sobered up on frogs legs and onion soup until dawn, is being moved this weekend to an efficient but colorless place near Orly Airport called Rungis.

To fete the occasion, the Beaux Arts Band, a pickup group of mostly tubas, trombones and trumpets, gave a concert from the Fountain of the Innocents, a handsome monument at one corner of the 19th century cast-iron produce halls which gave the market its name.

The ambience grew so rapidly that before long a snake dance took off through the piles of crated vegetables, adding more confusion than ever to the jumble of trucks and handcarts that have awed generations of foreigners.

Left behind will be the rats, the girls, the restaurants and 40 abandoned acres.

Extermination teams with raspberry flavored poison will go after the rats. The girls are fewer than a decade ago. If business falls off, they will probably move on to where its better.

Where the market stood, the city government plans to construct an international trade center, housing projects, and shopping and business facilities with underground concourses. But the plans have aroused much controversy, and their future is not entirely certain.

The well known tourist restaurants expect to keep going.

"But there are about 350 little cafes that live off the people who work here," lamented the balding patron of one place that serves onion soup on the bar. "For us, it is ruin, misery."

Rungis has 500 acres to Les Halles' 40, modern equipment, new buildings, parking lots and restaurants.

"So what?" said Patrice Belanger, 24, a butcher. "Les Halles was something great. Whatever they do at Rungis, it won't be the same. You felt part of Les Halles. Feeling part of Rungis would be like feeling part of some cement company."

But a cab driver shed no tears over the move.

"It will break up the nightly traffic jam that paralyzes the whole center of town," he said. "The move is good for Paris. The sentimentalists? Tant pis (or, too bad)."

Several More Bills Offered in House

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Reps. Cecil Alexander of Herber Springs and Sam Hasley of Arkansas introduced a bill in the Arkansas House Thursday that would allow the Arkansas Children's Colony to utilize funds derived from two additional days of dog racing at West Memphis for construction and improvement of facilities.

Rep. W.H. Thompson of Marked Tree introduced a resolution requesting state agencies to reduce expenditures for consultants and research studies.

In the resolution, Thompson said that a Legislative Council study showed that during the past two calendar years $3.6 million in state and federal funds was spent in various research projects and the employment of consultant services.

Other measures introduced in the House Thursday included:

— A concurrent resolution by Rep. Wayne Courtney urging Congress to raise the draft age from 18 to 21 years.

— A bill by Rep. N. B. "Nap" Murphy to specify penalties for the destruction of forests.

— A bill by Rep. Allan Dishongh to permit appeals from final action taken by the Arkansas Claims Commission to the circuit court of Pulaski County.

Plan to End Postal Patronage First Step in Undoing Abuses

By DONALD M. ROTHBERG
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Postmaster General Winton M. Blount says the administration's proposals for ending postal patronage are but a first step toward "undoing decades of abuse, and I mean decades, that have culminated in the conditions that we have here."

Political influence played a role even in routine promotions within local post offices, Blount said in an interview.

"It's been documented time and again about the connections of the people who had positions of responsibility around here," he said.

Turning to the 15 postal regional offices responsible for different sections of the country, Blount said "Political influence within these regions has been almost complete, and it's going to have to be changed."

President Nixon asked Congress this week to abolish political appointments of postmasters and rural carriers and set up a system of appointments based on merit.

"Reform of the postal system is long overdue," the President said in a message to Capitol Hill. "I consider it essential as a first step, that the congress remove the last vestiges of political patronage in the Post Office Department."

Blount expressed optimism that Congress will go along but added that "the thing that must be understood is that what we're talking about doing is not going to bring any overnight dramatic improvement in the whole postal service."

"If we were ever going to get to the business of improving the postal service we had to stop the political influence and I think that's the real significance of this decision."

Asked for comment about the closures by The Associated Press of political and Mafia influence in contracts for a $40 million mail processing complex under construction in northern New Jersey, Blount replied:

"As you know, we also are studying that problem. It's one of the messes we inherited, or one of the problems we inherited... We are investigating it ourselves to see just what the situation is, to see if there are any decisions to be made at this time."

One firm with a subcontract on the New Jersey project has a man who has been publicly identified as a member of the Mafia on its payroll. Blount was asked if firms with links to organized crime should be allowed to bid on government contracts.

"Well, I don't know what the law is in this regard," he said, "If I were making the decision, I wouldn't (permit them to bid)."

The New Jersey project is being built by a private developer who will lease it to the Post Office Department for 30 years at an annual rent of $1,985,000.

Both the General Accounting Office and the General Services Administration, which builds most government buildings, have criticized the 10-year-old program under which the Post Office Department has leased hundreds of post offices across the country from private builders.

Blount acknowledged that the lease method is more expensive than if the government built post offices itself, but added, "It also is far more economical than not building at all."

He explained that if the department built a $30 million post office from its appropriation "all of that $30 million is charged against your budget this year." On the other hand, he said, "you sign a 30-year lease for this $30 million building and maybe it will cost you a million and one-half dollars a year and only the million and one-half dollars is charged against your budget."

Demos Learn GOP Secret—Money

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats claim to have uncovered a secret Republican plan to capture control of the House in 1970. Details are not known but the chief code word is familiar — M-O-N-E-Y.

Democratic Rep. George Brown of California revealed the GOP plot in the Congressional Record Thursday by reprinting a letter sent out by the National Republican Congressional Committee to prospective party donors.

The letter, from Rep. Bob Wilson, R-Calif., chairman of the committee, says Republican party leaders have been hard at work since last November's election on the 1970 campaign.

"Here I have to ask you to trust me," wrote Wilson. "Details of the program must be kept top secret. The plan would lose much of its vote-getting power if the Democrats learned about this new approach."

"But I am free to say this much: the program is starting right now. And it is going to cost more than we have spent in any nonpresidential election year in our history. I wish I could tell you more at this time. But you can appreciate the need for secrecy."

Another document acquired by the Democrats shows the committee also is offering Republican members a wide variety of services and some hard cash to help with their re-election efforts.

Freshmen members and those from marginal districts can get $3,500 a year for public relations activities, with the rest of the members entitled to $2,000.

The services being offered included professional art work for their newsletters, help in preparing radio and television programs and photographs for home consumption.

The committee makes available a speech file "broken down by subject matter and type of audience. For instance: Speeches for use over Lincoln Day, before Young Republicans Clubs, business audiences, etc."

If members are too self-conscious to put out press releases praising themselves, the committee will do it for them.

Didn't Know Crew Was Highly Trained

By RICHARD E. MAYER
Associated Press Writer
CORONADO, Calif. (AP) — North Koreans apparently failed to realize the full value of the highly trained intelligence specialists they captured on the USS Pueblo, a crewman says.

"A lot of communications technicians weren't interrogated at all," Communication Technician I.C. Michael Barrett, 31, of Kalamazoo, Mich., told a Navy court of inquiry Thursday.

"It would have seemed they would have known they had a wonderful source of information in you," said Rear Adm. Edward Grimm, a member of the court. "Why didn't they beat you more?"

"I don't know," Barrett replied. "It surprised me very much... that's why I think they really weren't aware of what they had."

A little more than a third of the intelligence ship's 83-member crew were communications technicians.

Barrett said it seemed to him the North Koreans "didn't really know what they were after," judging by the questions they asked him.

Two Quakes Are Felt in California

PALMDALE, Calif. (AP) — Two gentle, rolling earthquakes centered 25 miles northeast of Los Angeles—squarely over the San Andreas fault—hit for nearly a minute Thursday night.

No serious damage was reported.

A sheriff's officer six miles from Palmdale said telephone service between Palmdale and Lancaster was cut at the time of the quakes. "The lines may be down," Deputy Charles Jensen said.

Seismologists at California Institute of Technology in Pasadena said the quakes which hit at 8:44 p.m. registered 4.3 on the Richter scale. Such magnitude can cause slight damage to buildings at the epicenter.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

Dear Helen: So men don't think it's right for wives to use sex to get what they want, like an evening out. How about the other way around? If I want or need something my husband says "No" unless he gets his sex first. I had the flu so bad I couldn't breathe, but that was no excuse, according to him. He went around the house not speaking to me or the kids until I was his bed partner again—with a temperature of 103. We're married 24 years, and he gets worse every year.

Before men start griping about us women, they'd better stop using sex as a bargaining weapon. When my kids all grow up, I think I'll tell my virile husband (spelled without the "ir") to get out and go to his other women permanently. He uses THEM as a weapon too: If I'm not constantly available, he says he's justified to find it elsewhere.

—D.W.
Dear Helen: Agreed. The women who said, "I will if you buy me something" is a married prostitute, but dear Helen, you omitted saying ALL women (well, almost all) have been married over a year) use sex as a bargaining basis. The difference is that most are less obvious.

Give your "married prostitute" points for being honest. How many husbands are sweet talked into doing things they don't want to do or buying things they can't afford because their scheming little wives know the monetary value of a good roll in the hay? When my wife is especially nice to me, she wants something, and it isn't love—HOODWINKED HUSBAND.

Dear Helen: My husband showed me your answer to "Lonely and Frustrated Husband." What about the demanding and insensitive men? I had four children in seven years, have constant backaches, varicose veins, ulcers, and am always tired. To avoid more children, I try the only prevention our religion allows. So my husband hits and curses me for my "coldness," and sits out in him "ham shack" every night while I tend babies. Then he uses your column against me!

Give the other side of the picture, Helen. A woman deserves to be taken out and treated like a human being. If she can only get such things by "using sex as a bargaining point," so be it. —TIRED AND DISCUST-ED

Dear All Three of You: This is love? Nope, this is a payment on demand and demand on payment, without thought to mutual giving, or wanting to make someone you care about happy.

A qualified marriage counselor might show you and your mates that "cold" wives are often caused by husbands who "stand on their rights" and forget a woman must be wooed. As one reader observed, "Married

FASHION IN THE NEWS

By HELEN HENNESSY
NEA Women's Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Leather and fashion pull together this spring for a head-to-heels total look.

Footwear, accessories, coats, suits and even dresses are crafted in American leathers as handsome and as supple as ever-improving tanning techniques can make them.

Shoes come in a variety of textures and finishes, from soft suede to antiqued, embossed and printed leathers. Colors include the pastels and beige tones, bright reds, luggage gray, white, gold, silver and bronze.

The heel is still stealing part of the limelight as it continues to climb. Most heels hover between 1½-to-2-inch heights. But they are chunky, not slim. Toelins are soft.

The spectator is alive and well and living in high fashion in every texture and color combination possible to envision.

You'll find slings, two-piece strap pumps, flatties, even backless mule types showing the smart spectator influence.

After several seasons of low-heeled, high-fronted horrors, the pumps on parade this year are refreshingly feminine and feature bows, buckles and gold ornaments.

Leatherize your life with a new spring suit—supple, eye-catching, designed to serve long and faithfully. Today's suit picture naturally includes the pantsuit, a fashion that continues to zoom in popularity. Most women prostitutes wouldn't be so prevalent if all men were the lovers they imagine themselves to be! —H.

Television and YOUNG ORIGINALS Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Some day one of television's multiplying topical variety shows will come along without a Spiro Agnew joke, without a De Gaulle joke, without a gag about the pill and without reference to racial tensions.

The program, for some reason or other, will receive high Nielsen ratings and some flattering critical reviews. After that, Spiro Agnew, De Gaulle, pill and black-white jokes will vanish from such shows.

"What's It All About, World?" on ABC Thursday night, was still fascinated by the same old subjects.

However, after a ragged start a few weeks back, the series does seem to be settling into a fairly amusing hour and if the writers can now get rid of their compulsions to retread old ground, it may emerge as a bright, light show.

The most recent edition had guest performers Buddy Ebsen and Barbara Feldon working with the cast regulars. Miss Feldon for once was given a chance to step out of that campy female fatale role to show how well she does satire. She was very funny doing imitations of Sophia Loren, Julie Andrews and Barbara Streisand. Then along came Buddy Ebsen in a witty wicked sketch that was about as far away as the poles from his usual hillbilly character. He played Adam Peyton Place, absentee congressman.

In Dick Clair and Jenna McMahon, the show's regular comedy team, "What's It All About, World?" has bright young talent. They were very funny in their sketch about a pair of dedicated smut-hunters and Clair had a bright solo turn as a State Department undersecretary trying to put some zing into a press briefing.

"The Jerry Lewis Show," after two seasons, departs into oblivion at the end of April, and "Star Trek" will be moved into that early Tuesday night hour for a hot weather season of reruns.

"The Saint," the British-made action-adventure series which has been a summer replacement for the past couple of NBC summers, will return again, this time to replace "Star Trek" on Friday nights.

When "PBL" broadcasts its 90-minute treatment on "Law and Order" over the national educational network Sunday night, some scenes will be deleted—on NET insistence.

They were ordered because the sound track for material which was filmed in Kansas City picked up what one PBL representative described as "four-letter and twelve-letter words" shouted by civilians as police went about their jobs.

find them both chic and comfortable. This season the pantsuit may be found in casual cut or dressy style for at-home wear and more formal occasions. Longer jackets or tunics usually signal the dressier costume, often trimmed with jewelry or gold.

In the rich realm of the leather suit you'll find reflected all the style themes in spring fashion—vests, capes, the Edwardian look. Handsome are the Edwardian-influenced suits, very feminine with curvy contours and big face-flattering collars.

Capes always appeal to the romantic in us and soft suede is used for one of the prettiest cape-suits to be seen.

Leather coats lightly shaped to the body or lashed smartly with sash or belt have at last outdistanced the straight-hanging models favored for so long.

Smooth, suede or antiqued, the leather dress gains a new dimension for spring with the return of the waistline. On some frocks a sash, fringed, beaded or in a contrasting color, adds a smart style note.

Give some thought to the zingy new separates, too. In these snappy spare parts you'll discover jackets, vests, pants shorts, skirts and tops in a beguiling mixture of colors and grains.

When it comes to purses, the news in the bag is that the box bag is back—big, beautiful and roomy. And so is the shoulder bag. No more need to tote a manila envelope for the excess paraphernalia that wouldn't fit in last season's small bag. The small bag has disappeared into fashion limbo.

They Go to Supermarket on Snow Skis

By JANICE ELLIOTT
Associated Press Writer

GLOUCESTER, Mass. (AP) — Gloucester men used to go down to the sea in ships. This week they are going down to the supermarket on skis.

Two prolonged storms have left this North Shore commercial fishing center and its 26,000 residents buried under 41 inches of snow.

Mayor Joseph F. Grace gave the Police Department authority to commandeer privately owned snow removal equipment and by Thursday—four days after the second storm hit—some of the major streets were passable.

The rest of the town still is snow bound.

Drifts have blown higher than a tall man's head.

An outbound train which never made it out of town has been buried in snow since Tuesday.

Its passengers, all from the area, made it home afoot.

Most grocery stores are still well-stocked and—considering the problems in letting there—fairly well patronized.

Shot Failed to Break Glass

NEW YORK (AP) — Someone fired a shot through a special shatterproof glass window at Tiffany's but the window held and the thief was unable to get at a $39,000 diamond and ruby necklace on display inside.

Police raced to the Fifth Avenue jewelry store early Thursday when a tremor was recorded on a sensing device attached to the window. They found a small hole, a piece of wire shoved through it, and three expended .45-caliber slugs on the sidewalk.

Tiffany later posted a sign on the window reading: "This window is made of several layers of glass and plastic. It can't be broken through... we would suggest to the would-be burglars that it is safer—and perhaps more profitable—to use their talents to better advantage."

In August, 1958, jewels valued at $163,000 were stolen from a smashed window.

Russian Ended Up in Jail

MOSCOW (AP) — A Russian who passed himself off as a foreign correspondent had great success with women—until he wound up in jail.

Alexander Korovkin ran up a string of conquests that included teachers, doctors and editors, with the help of a faked broken accent and talk about his assignments in exotic places like Honduras, Pakistan and Spain.

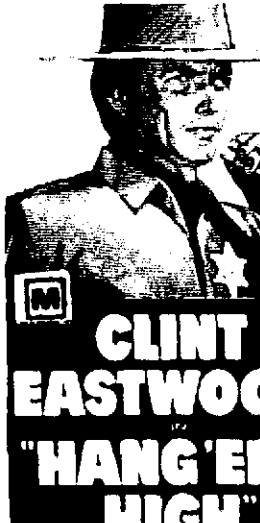

"I always dreamed of being captivated by a real Russian beauty," Korovkin told one of the women. He got $1,555 of her savings on the pretext of buying a car with the money "through his embassy."

Korovkin then disappeared but was caught by the police as he wooed another prospective victim. Now he is in custody facing trial and imprisonment.

Wildcats Are Off, Running for NCAA Bid

By HERSCHEL NISENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Davidson Wildcats are off and running in their pre-tournament tournament as they try to win a berth in a postseason tournament.

If that sounds confusing, it's only the Southern Conference's way of doing things. All eight members, no matter what their regular season records, get to play in the conference tourney with the winner going to the NCAA Tournament.

In Thursday's opening round, Davidson, ranked fifth nationally, steamrollered VMI 95-75. East Carolina, the regular season runner-up, overcame William & Mary's slowdown 48-35. George Washington trounced The Citadel 90-73 and Richmond nipped Furman 66-64.

The only other Top Ten team in action was seventh-ranked St. John's. The Redmen, down by seven points early in the second half, rallied behind John Warren to defeat crosstown rival New York U. 75-64.

In other key games, 16th-ranked New Mexico State clobbered hapless Denver 105-68, 19th-rated Tulsa got by Memphis State 62-56, Brigham Young beat New Mexico 77-71 in overtime and clinched a tie for the Western Athletic Conference crown as Wyoming knocked off Utah 84-62, West Texas State nipped Utah State 95-83 and Rutgers edged Fordham 62-61.

The Wildcats opened the game with 10 straight points, added two strings of nine and ran off a final volley of 10 for a 49-25 halftime lead.

East Carolina, seeded second in the tourney, got past the opening round for the first time ever despite William & Mary's stall. The Indians took only four shots in the first half and their final total of 35 points was a tournament record low.

George Washington's talented Tallent brothers combined for 49 points—26 for Bob, the nation's fifth leading scorer, 23 for Mike—as the Colonials stormed The Citadel and Frank Owen's last-second basket enabled Richmond to top Furman.

Davidson plays Richmond and East Carolina takes on George Washington in Friday's semifinals.

Fairmont State Best Small College Drew

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Fairmont State captured first place in the final poll of the season by the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics today, and thus advances into the NIAA's national basketball tournament here in two weeks as the top-seeded team.

The Falcons qualified by winning the District 28 championship last Saturday night with a 77-72 victory over West Virginia State for the West Virginia Athletic Conference tournament title.

That gave Fairmont a 25-1 season record, and the Falcons drew 23 of the 32 first-place votes in the NIAA poll to pile up 470 points.

East German Girl Wins Skating Title

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — East Germany's glamorous Gabriele Seyfert, a fantasy in mint green, picked herself off the ice Thursday night after a spill and impressively won the ladies World Figure Skating Championship.

Beatrice Schuba, the statuesque Austrian who won the compulsory figures, took the silver medal for second place with the chubby little professor's daughter from Budapest, Hungary, Zsuzsa Almasy, taking the bronze.

Unofficial scoring had Miss Almasy in second place and Miss Schuba in third place but the involved official calculations, which come about one-half hour after the event is over, reversed the order.

A crowd of more than 5,000 in the Broadmoor Arena cheered wildly a dramatic performance for their own Julie Lynn Holmes, who came in fourth despite what most experts considered too low markings. Hers was one of the standout performances of the long evening.

The United States and American champion, 15-year-old Janet Lynn of Rockford, Ill., seemed nervous under the tremendous pressure, skated a tentative program which included two obvious slips and had to settle for fifth place.

Earlier, Tim Wood of Detroit, zoomed into an imposing 126.7 lead over his closet challenger in the compulsory figures and virtually wrapped up the men's championship which will be decided with a free skating final Friday night.

The Russians on Wednesday night, scored a 1-2-3 sweep in the pairs.

The 20-year-old Miss Seyfert, a honey-complexioned blonde from Karl-Marx-stad, captivated the gallery with a fast-moving sequence of pirouettes, double loops and axles and double-flips, skating to a medley of classical music she slipped on the ice midway of her program while attempting a double axle and went spinning to the ice.

The crowd gasped but the pretty German girl rose to her feet and with superb poise and confidence completed her routine on a high note.

Eight of the nine judges gave her scores of 5.9 for technical merit and seven gave her 5.9 for artistic impressions in a system in which six is perfect.

Lowly Bucks, Pistons Get Their Kicks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The lowly Milwaukee Bucks and Detroit Pistons got their kicks, but only after a couple of officials gave Earl Monroe and Billy Cunningham the boot.

The Bucks, the last-place club in the Eastern Division of the National Basketball Association, kicked up their heels again by beating first place Baltimore 126-117 Thursday night. It was their sixth consecutive victory, a club record helped along when Monroe was ejected from the game in the final period.

The Pistons, one rung above the Bucks, also had some unexpected help when Billy Cunningham was thrown out in the third period and Detroit went on to trip second place Philadelphia 126-123.

In the only other game host San Diego tumbled Cincinnati 127-112.

In the American Basketball Association, Minnesota crushed Houston 136-102 and Denver defeated Los Angeles 115-101.

Williams
Keeps Pipers in Reach

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Charlie Williams' hot hand has kept the Minnesota Pipers within close reach of the American Basketball Association's Eastern Division lead.

Williams fired in 40 points Thursday night as the Pipers battered the Houston Mavericks 136-102 and cut Miami's Eastern margin to one-half game. The Floridians, idle Thursday, take on the last place New York Nets tonight with a chance to pick up ground in the stretch race.

In the only other game on the ABA schedule, Denver topped Los Angeles 115-101.

Milwaukee upended Baltimore 126-111; Detroit nipped Philadelphia 126-123 and San Diego beat Cincinnati 127-112 in National Basketball.

Shaw, looking for his first victory after six years on the tour, credited his performance to longer drives and a shorter haircut. Shaw said he's added 10 to 15 yards off the stretch.

Shaw Matches Record in Miami Play

By SHEILA MORAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

MIAMI (AP) — Tom Shaw says he'll sell his golfing secret to Arnold Palmer for a couple of airplanes. After Shaw's record-matching, first-round 65 at the Doral Open Golf Tournament, Arnie might just accept the offer.

The 26-year-old blond wit from Golf, Ill., has not only won more money than Palmer on the tour this year, but he left Arnie and the other big names far behind as he moved into today's second-round lead in the $150,000 tournament tied with steady veteran Dan Sikes.

Palmer shot a 68 over the 7,028-yard par 72 Doral layout in this first stop on pro golf's rich Florida tour.

Sikes, 38, known as the Florida Chicken Baron because of his Florida fried chicken drive-ins, and Shaw, who says his golfing motto is "60 anything," each fashioned 21-24 — 65s Thursday to tie the tournament record last matched by defending champion Gardner Dickinson.

Pyatt Leads Way Into Semifinals

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Defending champion Pyatt led the way into today's semifinals of the Class B senior boys state basketball tournament.

Pyatt rallied from a seven-point halftime deficit to defeat County Line 62-52 Thursday in the quarterfinals. In other games, Desha Central clipped Wilson 69-65 and Cutter-Morning Star whipped Howard County 74-61.

Mike Allen scored 24 points to lead Pyatt and Joel Tabor added 20. Roger Haney pumped in 26 points for County Line.

Desha Central scored four points in the final 35 seconds of the game to whip Wilson. Mike Steeves led Desha with 25 points and Caldwell Jones added 21 more. Joe Robertson tallied 26 for Wilson.

Cutter-Morning Star trailed most of the game but finally took the lead in the third quarter and went on to win. Steve Vaughn paced Cutter-Morning Star with 26 points and Ossie Hendrix had 20 for Howard County.

In today's semifinals, Prattville played Pyatt at 3 p.m. and Desha Central took on Cutter-Morning Star at 7 p.m. The finals will be at 8:30 p.m. Saturday.

Health Beats Wealth in Baseball

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Health still beats wealth, and that's why Tony Conigliaro and Rico Carty must be the happiest players in spring training.

Sure, Willie Mays and Carl Yastrzemski each signed for $125,000, and five St. Louis Cardinals are asking for some $575,000 in salaries. And, of course, major league players got their $5.45 million pension plan.

But no one can convince Conigliaro that any amount of money is worth a good left eye, and just try and persuade Carty that money can buy a good set of lungs.

Conigliaro, you remember, suffered a serious injury to his left eye when he was hit by a pitch in Aug. 1967, and he missed the rest of that season and all of 1968. His blossoming career with the Boston Red Sox appeared over.

Some Classy Girls Meet at Santa Anita

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Some classy girls are holding a little get-together Saturday at Santa Anita, and it should be quite an affair.

The girls are some of thoroughbred racing's top fillies and mares, including Dark Mirage and Camely, and the gathering is the $100,000 Invitational Santa Margarita Handicap.

The males also will be running after some big money—the $100,000-added John B. Campbell, at Bowie and the $75,000-added Hialeah Turf Cup at Hialeah.

Dark Mirage, who races for Lloyd I. Miller, was the champion 3-year-old filly of 1968 while William Haggin Perry's 5-year-old Camely was rated the best among the older fillies and mares.

Each will carry the high-weight of 130 pounds for the 1 1/8-mile Santa Margarita. Only one other distaff runner has ever won at Santa Anita under 130 pounds. C. V. Whitney's Silver Spoon did it in this race in 1960.

Eddie Belmonte will ride Dark Mirage and Willie Shoemaker will be up on Camely in the duel for the first prize of $60,000.

Missouri Gent Gets Nod as Favorite

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Eight older horses were to go postward for a mile and 70 yards in today's $7,500 feature race at Oaklawn Park.

The probable favorites were expected to be Missouri Gent (118) with Ray Landing aboard, and Sermon (topweight of 121) with Larry Synder aboard.

Rounding out the field are Sailor's Song (117), Rough Record (104), Show Case (112), Jumping Sailor (109), Ovation (120) and Tenor (115).

In Thursday's feature race, a $4,800 purse for 4-year-olds and up, By The Way II took command on the stretch turn to win by a length over Ulmer's Boy.

By The Way II covered the mile and 70 yards in 1:44 on a fast track to return $5, $3 and $3.20. Ulmer's Boy paid $5.80 and $4.20 and No Moniker, part of an entry with By The Way II, paid $3.20.

A longshot winner in the first race Thursday chalked up the biggest $2 mutual so far this season at Oaklawn and helped bring in the biggest daily double so far.

Vandalism Again Hits Colleges

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — New incidents of violent protest and vandalism have struck at three of the nation's universities where protesters have been most active during the current wave of campus unrest around the country.

Club-swinging police and hit-run dissidents clashed in a day-long series of scuffles at the Berkeley campus of the University of California. Twelve persons were arrested including three demonstration leaders.

One was Ysidro Macias who said earlier, "We're going to close it down whether it be by striking peacefully or by talking or whether we have to burn the s-o-b down." About 50 windows were broken during the day.

In Madison protesters at the University of Wisconsin ran through five buildings tossing stench bombs, overturning chairs and disrupting classes. Some students were forced to flee.

The outbreak followed a noon rally to assess progress on demands for an autonomous black studies department. The disorder ended an eight day lull on the 33,000-student campus where National Guardsmen were withdrawn only last week.

At the University of Chicago a call for a student strike received little support from the 9,800 students but about 100 dissidents marched on the law school. Six stench bombs were set off in campus buildings, but the protesters denied they were responsible.

Tim Wood Is Favored in Skate Meet

By LOUDON KELLY — COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — The women's championship in world figure skating has gone out of the United States for the first time in four years, but a 20-year-old Detroit star, Tim Wood, is favored to bring the men's crown back to this country after a 10-year absence.

Gabriele Seyfert, 20-year-old blonde from East Germany, won the women's title in the Broadmoor World Arena Thursday night despite a fall during her otherwise beautiful free skating performance. She also is the European champion.

Another round of free skating tonight will decide the championship among 18 men skaters from 10 nations. The ice dancing event will close the competition Saturday night.

Don't Want U.S. Probe of Colleges

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF — Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's governors have condemned campus disorders but rejected a call for a federal investigation out of fear it might stir more unrest.

By overwhelming voice vote, the governors approved a resolution Thursday saying "lawless acts by a small segment of the student population must not be allowed to interfere with the vast numbers of students who are seeking to exercise their educational opportunities."

The action came after Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell assured the National Governors' Conference on the second day of its two-day winter meeting that the Justice Department is keeping an eye on campus disorders.

The proposal by California Gov. Ronald Reagan, whose own state has had some of the severest upheavals, would have called on President Nixon to order a study "to determine if their is a nationwide plan or organization behind the current outbreaks."

California has been troubled by sporadic unrest at the University of California's Berkeley campus and at San Francisco State College.

"I see no need to foment trouble in Florida by indicating it is a federal responsibility," said that state's chief executive, Claude Kirk.

"In terms of the Michigan situation, I do not believe a federal investigation is necessary or advisable at this time," said new Gov. William G. Milliken.

The governors, many of whom spent a good deal of the two days talking about the campus problem, thus indicated agreement with suggestions presented by the Rev. Theodore Hesburgh, president of Notre Dame University.

Hesburgh, who was praised earlier by President Nixon for his policy of dealing firmly with protesters at the South Bend, Ind., university, sent his recommendations to Vice President Spiro T. Agnew in a letter made public about the time Reagan made his proposal.

Hesburgh said it is important to assume "that the university community—faculty, students, administration and trustees—are capable, in most cases, of laying down their own guidelines."

In case of trouble, he said, outside help may be needed. But he added: "Let it be understood that the university, and only the university, public or private, makes this determination."

The governors also passed a series of resolutions in which they called for simplification of federal grant programs and revenue sharing by which the national government would return a portion of tax revenues to the states.

FORM CHARTS

By MARTY RALBOVSKY, NEA Sports Writer

Kansas City, AL West

Gordon

PROSPECTUS—The new Kansas City club faced poorly in expansion draft. Joe Gordon will be building with youth and victories will be few and far between. Pitching staff is loaded with youngsters (most of them raw rookies) and most established player on entire roster is Joe Fay, who hit .225 with Red Sox last season.

Bunker

PITCHING—Best pitcher appears to be Wally Bunker, if he has recovered from arm trouble which forced him back to minors for a spell last season. Well-traveled Galen Cisco is back for another try. Dave Morehead (.4 at Boston) and Roger Nelson (.4-3 at Baltimore) could win starting jobs and Jay Warden (.4-1 at Detroit) could be sleeper.

CATCHERS—Most experienced catcher is Frank Rodriguez, who caught nine games for Yankees last season. Best are rookies Buddy Booker, up from Hawaii, and Jim Campanis, from Spokane, could also stick. Boring C.

INFIELD—Jerry Adair, Fay and Paul School, after some juggling, will probably compose left side of infield. Adair can play short or third, but will probably settle at second, with Fay at third and School at short. First base is wide open. Boring C.

OUTFIELD—Ed Kirkpatrick from the Angels and Steve Whitaker from the Yanks appear best of poor outfield crop. Kirkpatrick hit .230 for Angels, Whitaker .117 for Yanks last season. Last outfield spot will go to either Pat Kelly (.306 at Detroit) or Joe Kneib (.299 at Birmingham). Rating: D.

ROOKIES TO WATCH—Dick Drago, a right-hander who was 15-8 at Toledo, could make it as a starter.

Predicted Finish: 5th in West

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Bohemians, the hippies of yesterday, didn't come from Bohemia. The World
Almanac says. In 15th-century France, Bohemian meant a vagabond or gypsy because of the mistaken belief that all gypsies came from Bohemia. It wasn't until the 19th century, in Paris, that artists who led unconventional lives were called Bohemians.

Opening lead—♦ Q

When two experts sit down to play together for the first time they usually discuss their defensive signals. One of the more common defensive signals is to echo (play high, then low) to show an even number of cards in a suit while if you simply play normally you are showing an odd number.

If they are high-ranking experts they usually say that they only use these signals when there is a good reason to help their partner while if they want to fool declarer they discard any way they feel like.

West opened the queen of diamonds and continued the suit. How could he possibly tell that a club shift would beat the hand while a diamond continuation would allow declarer to bring home
the bacon?

South ruffed the second diamond and led his king of trumps. East took his ace and led a third diamond.
South ruffed high and led a trump to dummy's 10.

South was a near-expert who considered himself a master of cunning plays. He knew that he needed four spade tricks to make his contract since he had to park one of dummy's losing clubs on his fourth spade. He decided that if he studied while before playing a high spade from dummy, he might cause an opponent to think that his partner held the spade ace. He hesitated a while and then played dummy's king of spades.
East played the three.

West was a real expert.
He figured out just what was going through South's mind and played the eigth spades on that first spade lead. He echoed with the three on the second and
South fell for it.
He played dummy's last spade, turned to West and remarked, "You gave yourself away when you echoed in spades." Then South played his 10 spot. "Maybe not," replied West, as he produced the jack!

No Imagination
In Great Britain, in the latter part of the 18th century, it was considered by law high treason to "imagine" the death of the king, queen-consort or the heir apparent of the crown, according to the first edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica in 1768.

QUICK QUIZ

BLONDIE

Q—Are liquid measurements uniform throughout the world?
A—No. For example, the imperial gallon, used for measurement in Canada, contains more liquid than the gallon used in the United States.
Q—Which is the only active volcano in continental United States?
A—Mt. Lassen in California.

Highway Safety Program Scheduled Here on March 3

A highway safety program, featuring an Indianapolis 500 mile race driver, will be presented in Hope High School on Mon., March 3, at 9:30 a.m. Featuring Arnie Knepper who has competed at Indianapolis and other tracks throughout the nation, the program is now in its 15th year and has been seen by more than 12,000,000 students in more than 7,000 high schools.

It is being brought to Hope by J.B. Cook Co. The program has been long recognized by educators and law enforcement officers as a unique method of impressing teenagers with the responsibilities they must assume once they obtain a driver's license.

DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Search Continues For ALS Treatment

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—In one of your columns, you mentioned a pancreatic enzyme for the treatment of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis. How effective is it?

A—This treatment has not justified the hopes placed in it. The search for an effective treatment continues.

Q—How does amyotrophic lateral sclerosis differ from multiple sclerosis?

A—ALS usually has its onset in persons in their 40s and 50s and is steadily progressive. MS starts in the 20s and 30s and progresses slowly, often with periods of remission. ALS is characterized by weakness, with marked wasting away of the involved muscles, fine tremors in small muscles and exaggerated knee jerks and related reflexes, while MS is characterized by numbness as well as weakness, no wasting of muscles and coarse intention tremors seen only when a co-ordinated movement, such as raising a cup to the lips, is attempted. The cause of both diseases is unknown and as yet there is no cure for either.

Q—In your column on Bell's palsy, you said it could be caused by a tumor. Where would the tumor be? I have had repeated attacks. How can I prevent further recurrences?

A—For a tumor to cause facial paralysis it would have to be in the region of the facial nerve. For the recurring type of this disease, you should avoid exposure of your face to wind and cold and avoid crowds during the season when respiratory infections are prevalent.

Q—In a recent column you mentioned a pain killer that didn't contain any aspirin. What is the name of it?

A—There are many such drugs. The following are not habit forming: acetanilid, phenacetin, acetaminophen, antipyrine, aminopyrine, dipyrone, oxyphenbutazone and phenylbutazone. Frequently two or more of these are combined in a single preparation. Another drug, propoxyphene (Darvon) is very popular but none of the drugs mentioned should be taken without careful medical supervision because of possible harmful side effects.

Q—In an elderly person could a two-day loss of consciousness be caused by hardening of the arteries or high blood pressure when no heart disease is evident?

A—Yes. The two diseases may affect the brain without affecting the heart.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

The forty-first Annual Convention of the Arkansas Congress of Colored Parents and Teachers will be held Thursday evening, Friday and Saturday, March 6-7-8, 1969, at the Lincoln Elementary School, North Little Rock.

The administration theme is "Unity—Our Challenge". The convention focus is "Communication-Key to Understanding and Acceptance."

The fifth annual dinner meet will be held on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock in the auditorium of the school. The theme is "An Evening to Remember." At this time all past presidents, board members and life members will be honored. Among the honorees will be our own local president, and president of District 4, Mr. C.C. Carmichael.

The first general session will be held at 9:30 a.m. The key note address will be given by Mr. Elijah Coleman, Director of Arkansas Council of Human Relations.

The second general session at 1:30 will feature a panel by Future P.T.A. ers.

Following the band concert, a panel of past presidents will present a history of the Congress in resume. Mr. Ozell Sutton, Executive Director of Governor's Council on Human Resources will give greetings. A reception will follow.

The Saturday morning clinic session will explore the eight areas of emphasis. The third General Assembly will be focused on School Education. The speaker will be Mrs. M.C. Arant, Supervisor of Elementary Education, Pine Bluff.

PERSONAL MENTION

Willie Lee Cooper, a sophomore at Arkansas Tech College, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooper of Malvern, and Hope, Arkansas, is a member of selected groups that will present concerts at the Music Educators National Convention, Southwest Division in St. Louis, March 5-9, 1969. He sings with the Arkansas Tech Madrigal Singers and the Arkansas Tech Choir. The performing organizations were selected from more than 250 applicants who submitted audition material.

Well, Kitty Lester, a native of Palmos, Arkansas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Friereson, and a 1955 graduate of Yerger High School, Hope, has been seen several times recently on T.V. Among the shows, are Green Acres, The FBI, Julia, and her most recent appearance was last night (Thursday, February 26th) on That Girl.

The spots are small and brief, but, so what? Many a small and brief spot appearance has ended in a major role, even the "Starting Part."

So watch your TV Guide so that you may know when she will appear again. You must admit that Kitty Lester (Revoyda Friereson) is gradually taking her place among the "entertaining greats." I'm proud, aren't you?

OBITUARY

Mr. Wesley Gilliam passed away in a local hospital Wednesday, February 26, 1969.

Among his survivors are his wife, Mrs. Ida M. Gilliam and several children (names unavailable).

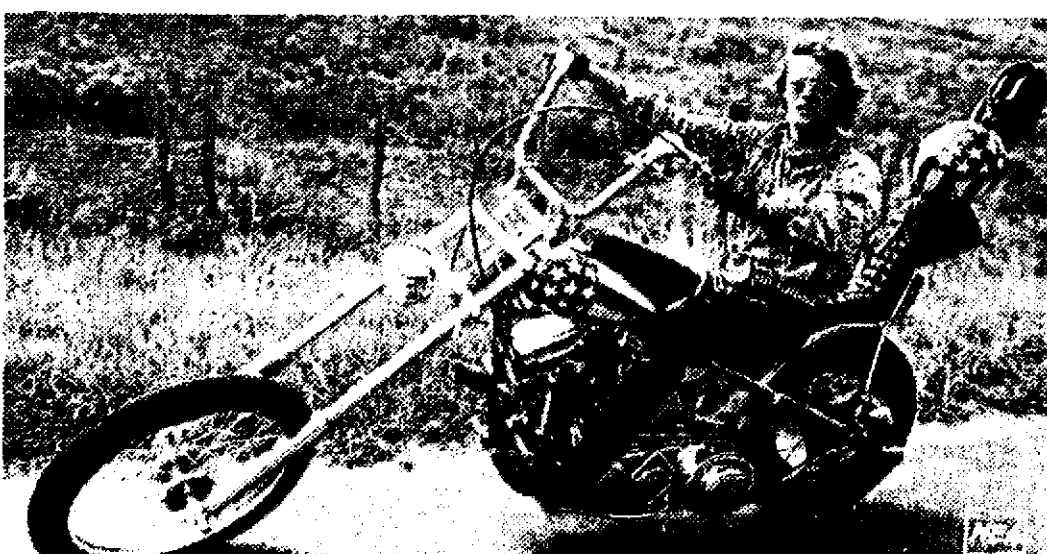

Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced by Hicks Funeral Home, Inc.

Electro Therapy in Surgery Being Studied

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Use of electric currents to kill pain in surgery, move limbs paralyzed by strokes and restore sight and hearing was explored Thursday at a neuroelectric conference.

The meeting, billed as the first major conference in this country on advances in electrotherapy, heard scientists from this country and abroad express cautious optimism.

Dr. C. Norman Shealey, University of Wisconsin neurosurgeon, told of tests with four human patients with intractable pain due to cancer and other diseases. They were given significant relief, he said, by applying electrical stimulation through electrodes implanted under the skin over various points on the spinal column.

MOTORCYCLE ENTHUSIASTS will recognize this as a "chopper" bike with a "raked" front. Actor Peter Fonda rides the sleek machine in his latest film which deals with the experience of two young men traveling across the country on motorcycles.

Turnpike Bill Amendment Approved

By ROBERT SHAW
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Senate approved a bill Thursday to amend the state's 1967 turnpike legislation and clear the way for the construction of toll roads.

The Senate passed 33-1 a bill empowering the state Turnpike Authority to issue revenue bonds to construct turnpikes and lease them to the Highway Commission. The commission's lease payments would be used to retire the bonds.

If the turnpike operations don't produce enough money to meet the lease payments, the commission would be authorized to set aside motor fuel taxes to make up the deficit.

The House passed a bill by Rep. Cecil Alexander of Heber Springs that would almost triple the income tax paid by domestic life insurance companies. Alexander said the bill would produce about $232,000 annually. He said the firms now pay about $77,000 in income taxes.

The bill, which reduces from four to 3 1/4 per cent the policy reserve fund credit for the companies, represented a compromise agreed to by the industry. It passed 69-0.

The Senate's turnpike bill passed after the chamber refused an amendment by Sen. Morrell Gathright of Pine Bluff that would have required that after the bonds used to finance a toll road are retired the tolls would be removed and the turnpike would be operated as part of the state highway system.

Gathright said tolls on large revenue-producing roads could be maintained indefinitely to support unfeasible turnpikes and that this would be unfair to users of the money-making roads.

The 1967 legislature created the Turnpike Authority and authorized it to build turnpikes. But a study of 1,200 miles of proposed corridors found each to be unfeasible, making it unlikely that bond buyers would purchase the bonds required to finance any of the turnpikes.

Under the bill, pattered after Kentucky legislation, the Highway Commission would pledge its resources to support the bonds if needed. The commission would enter into a two-year contract renewable biennium to operate each turnpike.

Sen. John F. Gibson of Dermott, the only senator to vote against the measure, objected to the provisions to permit the Highway Commission to set aside motor fuel taxes to support turnpike bonds.

Sen. Olen Hendrix of Prescott said that the bill was one method under which the state could build roads and free revenue so the Highway Department could build other public highways.

In other action, the Senate passed and sent to Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller a bill to require manufacturers and wholesalers of depressant and stimulant drugs to register with the state Board of Pharmacy.

Sen. Oscar Alagood of Little Rock, who handled the bill in the Senate, said it was easy for anyone to acquire the drugs presently. He showed the Senate drugs he said had been purchased by a fictitious Little Rock pharmacy formed by a druggist for his 11 and 14-year-old daughters to demonstrate how easily drugs could be obtained.

The Senate also passed a bill by Sen. Ralph Hudson of Harrison that would create a licensing board for homebuilders.

The House approved 60-5 a truth in lending bill by Rep. Joe Hamilton of Harrison. The bill would require a seller or lender to furnish a statement showing the amount of interest and principal charged when a borrower or purchaser asks for the information.

The House passed 65-10 a bill by Reps. Charles Honey of Prescott and Sam Hasley of Arkadelphia to provide that liquor confiscated in municipalities be turned over to the mayors for sale and that liquor seized by sheriffs or the State Police be given to county judges.

In other action Thursday, the House:

—Passed 84-0 a bill by Rep. B. D. "Doug" Brandon of Little Rock to authorize the revocation of a liquor retailers permit for failure to remit taxes.

—Passed 52-15 a bill by Rep. Jerry Bookout of Jonesboro to create a Board of Hearing Aid Dispensers. An earlier version of the bill was vetoed by Gov.

forts to build a new sense of western purpose," the U.S. President said in an address prepared for his arrival from Rome. "We will respect your convictions. We will strive to find areas of common understanding. We will talk, but we will also listen. For without France there is no Europe. Both your continent and our world need your wisdom and experience."

Nixon also sounded a call to something new and different.

"Our Western societies, he said, "different as they may be in culture, history and tradition, face in common the task of creating new goals—goals which will inspire our peoples, goals which will lead them to constructive rather than destructive relations."

The President referred to historic links between France and America and said the two "must once again begin a journey together" in search of something more exciting than any previous adventure they have shared.

"We must discover the way to a just and lasting peace," Nixon said. "The search will be difficult, but we must succeed, for the price of failure cannot be borne. I look forward, Mr. President, to discussing with you how to carry out this essential task."

In a glowing compliment to his host, Nixon said "few leaders of the modern world think so broadly as you."

"Few have so well understood the great historical sweeps of the past," he continued. "Few have thought so clearly about the future. Few have considered the interplay of forces that shape events, the motivations of men and nations, the subtle traditions that lie behind the attitudes of the moment."

The French Communist party called for demonstrations "at the moment he enters Paris" to protest the "new flare-up of American aggression" in Vietnam since Nixon's inauguration.

Early in the day, roving bands of youths shouting "Go Home!" smashed windows at offices of American Express and Pan American Airways, and at the Hilton Hotel coffee shop.

—Passed 71-4 a bill by Hamilton to provide immunity from liability for good faith decisions of hospital utilization review committees.

—Passed 77-1 a bill by Rep. B. G. Hendrix of Fort Smith to authorize the state Publicity and Parks Commission to assist regional tourist promotion agencies.

—Passed 72-0 a bill by Bookout to grant blind persons an additional income tax credit.

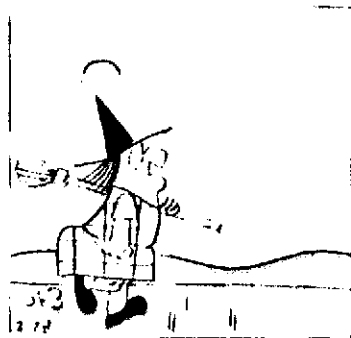

—Passed 71-2 a bill by Rep. Raymond Black of Mena prohibiting publication of legal notices in newspapers which have not paid at least $60 property tax per year.

—Passed 73-0 a bill by Rep. A. Jan Thomas of West Memphis to authorize the licensing of vehicles used exclusively for life saving and first aid for $1 fee.

—Passed 76-0 a bill by Rep. Bernice Kizer of Fort Smith to permit community junior college districts to issue bonds payable from revenues other than tax proceeds.

—Passed 61-1 a bill by Brandon to exempt from the ad valorem tax property owned and used by housing authorities or urban renewal agencies.

SHORT RIBS

Mixed Drink Bill Sent to Senate

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Senate Revenue and Taxation Committee sent the administration's local-option, mixed-drink bill to the Senate with no recommendation today. Action on the measure later in the day seemed likely.

The committee did not act on a suggestion by Sen. Richard Earl Griffin of Crossett that it hold the bill until the attorney general's office could rule on the legality of House passage of the measure Tuesday.

The House vote on the bill was 52-46, a bare majority.

Griffin said he had "serious" doubts that the bill passed in the House. He said he believed it needed either a three-fourths favorable vote, because it places a tax on liquor, or a two-thirds favorable vote, because it "overrules" the 1941 Initiated Act setting up the local-option procedure.

Griffin offered an amendment to the bill to strike a section that would permit private, non-profit clubs of a social or fraternal measure to serve mixed drinks in each county of the state, including dry counties. Griffin's amendment was reported out with no recommendation.

Sen. Max HELL OF Little Rock, who is managing the bill in the Senate, said he was hopeful of bringing the measure to a vote today. A fight looms on Griffin's amendment plus amendments that Sens. J. Hugh Lookadoo of Arkadelphia and Morrell Gathright of Pine Bluff plan to offer.

Griffin told the committee that Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller had said initially that he would propose a purely local-option bill, but that the provision permitting private clubs to serve mixed drinks in dry counties "overruled" local option.

He said he believed that this feature of the bill would create dissension and unrest in dry counties, adding that "you might see open rebellion."

He said he foresaw the defeat of senators, representatives, sheriffs, judges and mayors in dry counties.

"When the natives are restless, heads are going to roll," Griffin said.

The committee's hastily called public hearing lasted about 40 minutes.

One of the speakers, Jim Cannaway, a Little Rock lawyer, said supporters of the measure wanted to "drunkenize" the entire state for the benefit of "large interest groups."

"People who like to drink and want to drink are getting all they want anyway," Cannaway said.

Branch Fields of North Little Rock, president of the Christian Civic Foundation of Arkansas, predicted that passage of the bill would cause greater highway fatalities, ore broken homes and a breakdown of morals.

"Support of any mixed-drink bill is support for expanding death, death, death," Fields said. "What Arkansas needs is life, bright sober life."

Housewife Was Translator

GLADWYNE, Pa. (AP) — Translator for President Nixon on his visit to Rome Thursday was a Pennsylvania housewife — hired by the Italian government.

She is Mrs. Vivian Bonaccorsi Lewis, mother of two, who was born in Italy and worked for the government there before her marriage four years ago to Edward David Lewis, a Philadelphia architect.

Even though she lives in America now, the Italian government keeps her on call as a free-lance translator.

Star Visitors
— of Today
and Yesterday

Periodically these days newspapermen visit other printing plants to study the new equipment which is revolutionizing the procedure and appearance of the American press.

Wednesday The Star had as its plant-inspection guests two men from the Benton Courier, Ron Meyer, business manager; and Carroll Powell, of the advertising department.

Today we have another party from the Malvern Daily Record and the weekly Fordyce News-Advocate. Today's guests are headed by W.R. (Bill) Whitehead, publisher of the Fordyce weekly and co-publisher of the Malvern daily. With him are B.E. Stillwell, general manager, and W.L. Davis, shop operator, of the Malvern Record; and John Kinley, general manager of the Fordyce News-Advocate.

Both Benton and Malvern are interested in rotary offset presses, Benton expecting delivery later this Spring of the same model press The Star installed in 1965, while Malvern is studying the whole problem of converting to the offset printing process.

Bill Whitehead and his Malvern partner, Ray Kimball, of DeQueen, are old friends of our editor — and while at the moment we are at home receiving visitors it wasn't so long ago that we were "on the road" ourselves. In the Spring of 1966 General Manager Paul H. Jones and our editor spent two days on a trip to the plant of the Bastrop (La.) daily Enterprise to inspect "cold type" machines which would replace our original Linotypes and "hot type" — subsequently buying the same Friden equipment Bastrop was using. You've been reading the product of the new machines for nearly three years.

And the printing conversion job seems endless. Later this Spring your editor and Mechanical Superintendent Billy Dan Jones have scheduled two trips to inspect computer-typesetters which are now displacing the Friden machines. It's a bewildering world — but a constantly better one . . . if you don't press the panic button . . .

A big car carrying a gray-haired man and a woman pulled up in front of The Star Thursday afternoon. The man got out and introduced himself as John Bruce Cox, who used to carry papers for the El Dorado Daily News when I was its editor 40 years ago. I showed him through our plant, then got his own story.

Mr. Cox as a young man went with Plough, Inc., big drug manufacturer, and now lives in retirement at Memphis. He and Mrs. Cox are driving to San Francisco, where on March 9 they will board the S.S. Mariposa of the Hansen Lines for a month's tour of Australia.

I suggested that I could use a kangaroo in my "back 40" game preserve — which was a laugh, for neither the editor nor his old carrier boy is in shape to outrun a pocket-toting fellow from Down Under.

Receiver Has Collected $1.1 Million

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Lem C. Bryan of Fort Smith, court-appointed receiver for bankrupt Arkansas Loan & Thrift Corp., has apparently collected more than $1.1 million to be divided among AL&T depositors.

The money, $1,128,472, will be distributed among about 2,000 persons and organizations when the U.S. District Court at Fort Smith issues the order.

The total deposits in the firm amounted to more than $4.3 million.

Bryan obtained the money through collection of debts, foreclosures and from cash assets of AL&T and an allied corporation, Savings Guaranty Corp.

Several lawsuits have been filed against persons and firms that owe money to AL&T. Funds from the lawsuits will be distributed as they are collected.

Notices published in several newspapers state that none of the money will go to officials of the firms or to any firms in which AL&T or its directors have an interest.

DeGaulle, Nixon Hold Conference

By FRANK CORMIER

PARIS (AP) — President Nixon came to Paris today to a cordial French welcome, and soon was closeted with President Charles de Gaulle for the climactic talks of his five-nation European tour.

Nixon said that he came to France seeking De Gaulle's help in efforts "to build a new sense of Western purpose" and to seek a "just and lasting peace."

There was little sign of hostility among the crowds who welcomed the U.S. chief executive to this "City of Light." The outpouring was not massive, but it was markedly warm to the American visitor. The Communist party had called for anti-Nixon demonstrations when he arrived in the city. Informants said fear of violent Red demonstrations kept many Parisians away.

Nixon at once extended the hand of friendship to De Gaulle's France, with which U.S. policymakers have long been at odds.

In return, De Gaulle recalled traditional French-American friendship and said he attached the greatest importance to the exchanges he will have with his guest. De Gaulle ended his brief welcome address at Orly Airport with the words, "Long live the United States."

After a moving ceremony at which Nixon presided at the placing of a wreath on the memorial to France's unknown soldier, the American President was driven down the broad Champs Elysees, crowded with well-wishers, to De Gaulle's Elysees Palace for the first of a series of meetings with the French leader.

Camden Man Shoots Wife, Kills Himself

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP) — Ouachita County Sheriff Grover Lnebarber said Thursday that Joseph Lowe, 31, shot and killed himself Thursday after critically wounding his wife at their home in the Louann community south of Camden.

Prosecutor Jack Graves said Lowe called authorities after shooting his wife, Evelyn, 27. Graves said Lowe then put the .9mm automatic pistol in his mouth and killed himself.

Authorities said Mrs. Lowe was shot as she returned home from a hospital where she had spent the night in a Smackover hospital with two of the couple's three children.

Conclusion Is Offense No Violation

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

PARIS (AP) — American negotiators at the Vietnam peace talks appear to have reached the conclusion that the current offensive thus far has not violated the tacit "understanding" under which the United States halted the bombing of North Vietnam last Nov. 1.

Chief U.S. negotiator Henry Cabot Lodge is due to present a detailed report on the deadlocked conference to President Nixon during a scheduled three-hour meeting Sunday morning.

Conference sources said South Vietnamese Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky will attend at least a part of Nixon's talk with Lodge.

They are expected to review the five-week-old stalemate and discuss the possible repercussions of the Viet Cong attacks. There was a noticeable difference in emphasis between American and South Vietnamese comments on the attacks.

Following the sixth weekly conference session Thursday, South Vietnamese spokesman Nguyen Thieu Dan stressed the large number of civilians killed and injured by what he called indiscriminate Viet Cong shelling of population centers.

Lodge also deplored the civilian victims of the Viet Cong's "wanton violence." But U.S. spokesman Harold Kaplan told newsmen the United States was satisfied the Viet Cong attacks were aimed "mainly" at military targets.

Kaplan said the American delegation kept "under very active review" the question of whether the attacks violated the package deal under which the bombing was halted.

Details of the deal have never been announced, and Kaplan said it was best "for the sake of the future of the negotiations" to avoid spelling them out. North Vietnam has frequently denied that it made any commitment in return for the bombing halt, and Hanoi's spokesman in Paris, Nguyen Thanh Le, on Thursday described American reports of such a commitment as a "pure invention."

Eisenhower Develops Pneumonia

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has developed pneumonia, the Army announced today.

A morning bulletin from Walter Reed Army Hospital said the 78-year-old former president, who underwent abdominal surgery Sunday, "is generally weaker this morning, but is cooperative and determined to overcome this latest complication."

The bulletin, relayed by the Pentagon, reported that Eisenhower "experienced some respiratory difficulty during the night which is due to pneumonia which has developed in the right lung base."

"It is too early to determine how he will respond to treatment," the bulletin said.

He was described as having spent a restless night.

The issuance by the Pentagon of the hospital bulletin was a departure from the usual procedure. Previous ones were announced at the hospital.

Lawyers to Start Defense for Sirhan

LOS ANGELES (AP) — In the pandemonium that followed the mortal wounding of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy last June, his assailant was heard to mutter: "I can explain. Let me explain."

Sirhan Bishara Sirhan will have his chance starting today when his lawyers begin building the defense that the killing was "unplanned and undeliberate, impulsive and without premeditation of malice, totally a product of a sick, obsessed mind and personality."

In California, such a defense is called "diminished responsibility." Sirhan's attorneys do not deny that he killed the New York senator but hope to show that he did not have the mind to "maturely and meaningfully" plan the assassination.

The prosecution called 56 witnesses in nine days of testimony seeking to establish not only that Sirhan killed Kennedy, but that it was premeditated—a necessary element for a first-degree murder conviction.

Suit Filed to Halt Payment on Airplane

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rep. Sterling R. Cockrill Jr. of Little Rock Thursday filed a lawsuit as a taxpayer in Chancery Court here that challenges the validity of the contract made by the state Aeronautics commission to acquire a $34,000 used airplane.

A hearing was set for 2 p.m. Wednesday by Chancellor Murray O. Reed to decide whether to grant a temporary injunction to prevent any payments under the contract until a final trial of the suit.

The firm that sold the airplane, Arkansas Aircraft, Inc., of Benton, repessed it Monday because $1,000 payments for January and February were not made.

Cockrill contended that the commission did not take formal bids on the plane as required by the state purchasing act and that an attorney general's opinion that he received in December substantiated his position that bids were required.

Shaw Case May Reach Jury Today

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Criminal District Court Judge Edward A. Haggerty says the Clay Shaw conspiracy case may reach the jury late today—the 34th day.

Thursday unidentified witnesses called by the prosecution were reported "snowbound" in the East. The judge granted an early recess but ruled the trial had to proceed on schedule today.

Shaw, charged with conspiring to assassinate President John F. Kennedy, testified in the climax of the defense case. "No, I did not," he replied when asked if he had plotted with Lee Harvey Oswald, David W. Ferrie and others to kill Kennedy, slain in Dallas Nov. 22, 1963.

Did he ever see Oswald, the former New Orleans resident? Did he ever see Oswald, the former New Orleans resident named by the Warren Commission as the lone and unaided assassin?

Students in Rome Angry at Everyone

By DENNIS REDMONT
Associated Press Writer

ROME (AP) — President Nixon is only one of several targets on which the angry young men of Italy have been venting their frustrations.

Two years ago Italy's students were considered among the most docile in Western Europe. But since student protests last spring erupted into bloodshed, they have become the most militant.

A week has not gone by without police putting down a riot or students occupying a university. For many, the 1968 scholastic year was a loss.

The University of Rome, with 65,000 students, closed Saturday because of student occupations. This left most of the students free to riot Thursday in protest against Nixon's visit.

Not that President Nixon made any move to antagonize the students.

Learns More About Heart Rejection

By BRIAN SULLIVAN
AP Science Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Dr. Denton A. Cooley's heart transplant team warned today that the human heart appears to be far more vulnerable to rejection by the body than scientists thought a year ago.

Based on their 18 transplants in 17 patients, the team said that in the case of poor tissue matching between donor and recipient, rejecting seems to be "inexorably progressive."

For this reason, the Houston, Tex., transplant team said new methods must be found to overcome poor tissue matches if heart transplantation is ever to become commonplace.

Another way to attack the problem, they said, would be to set up regional and national pools of donors and recipients whose tissue is typed in advance, "with emergency transportation of patients to selected centers."

The report was made by Dr. James J. Nora, Dr. Cooley and 10 others to the annual meeting of the American College of Cardiology.

Decision to Postpone Apollo 9 Flight Cost Program $500,000

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — For years Dr. Charles A. Berry has argued that astronauts should take it easy in the final days before a flight.

The astronauts' chief physician may have made his point Thursday when the Apollo 9 launching was postponed three days until Monday because of colds suffered by the three pilots, Air Force Col. James A. McDivitt and David R. Scott and civilian Russell L. Schweickart.

In the last couple weeks they've worked as many as 18 hours a day training for the flight, most of the time in a cool spaceship simulator.

Berry, the space agency's director of medical operations, has felt that operational officials demand too much of the astronauts in the days before a launching.

Asked at a news conference Thursday whether overwork had made the Apollo 9 pilots more susceptible to the colds, Berry replied:

"I'm glad you asked that question. Yes, I feel strongly about this. We've had 100 percent post-flight illness on these Apollo flights. I don't think we've got a spacecraft that carries germs around and infects them. And I can't see where the cape has changed that much from the Mercury and Gemini days."

"What has changed is, the complexity of the flights has increased such that the crew has got to put in considerable training and long hours and they don't get enough rest," Berry added.

"You take a crew which starts out a flight tired and you give them demanding tasks in a new environment without adequate rest. You bring them back, debrief them for 10 days. Then you put them out with thousands of people, and with their resistance low they've contracted illnesses."

Berry noted that all three of the Apollo 9 astronauts developed colds shortly after they were launched into orbit and that Air Force Col. Frank Borman became nauseated and suffered from an intestinal ailment during the Apollo 8 moon orbit flight.

He said all six of the astronauts on those two flights developed medical problems, colds or intestinal upsets in a two-to-three-week period after they returned to earth.

It was Berry's decision to postpone the flight, at a cost of $500,000 to the space agency.

30 Towns, Bases Ripped by Shells

SAIGON (AP) — More than 30 towns and bases in South Vietnam were shelled by the Viet Cong during the night and 100-pound rockets ripped through a U.S. Navy dock at Da Nang. The rockets sank two big landing craft and heavily damaged a third.

The enemy rockets touched off a series of explosions aboard the ammunition-laden boats. At least one American sailor was killed, 51 sailors and eight Marines were wounded and 300 tons of ammunition were destroyed, U.S. spokesmen said.

AP correspondent Edwin Q. White reported that the fronts were blown off nine small warehouses loaded with everything from chocolate bars to bombs.

Part of one of the boats was hurled 150 yards across a road, and pieces of metal up to a foot square were thrown farther. Ammunition explosions damaged armored personnel carriers, trucks, bulldozers and other equipment in the area.

Officials, fearing that some 500-pound bombs stored nearby might explode, evacuated 1,000 civilians from a half square mile area surrounding the dock. The civilians began moving back into the area this morning with the dock still littered with debris and explosives.

At least 100 enemy troops were reported pushing toward Saigon today, and military spokesmen reported several other indications that small units were attempting to assemble for an assault on the capital.

North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops were intercepted 10 miles east of Saigon Thursday. They were reported still fighting today as U.S. 1st Infantry Division soldiers followed up a night bomb and artillery attack with a sweep of the area's rice paddies and swamps.

Three Killed in Accident at Jonesboro

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Three persons were killed early this morning when the car in which they were riding apparently went out of control and smashed into a brick building inside the Jonesboro city limits.

State Police identified the victims as Danny Watson, 23, of Corning, Floyd A. Rodery, 19, of Greenway and Larry G. Davison, 20, of Marvell.

Officers said they were unable to determine who was driving the car. They said Rodery and Davison were thrown from the car. Police said the street was wet at the time of the accident.

Pair Involved in Robbery Captured

HINDSVILLE, Ark. (AP) — A man and a woman in a bullet-marked car were arrested by police who reported recovering money taken in a robbery at the Valley Bank of Hindsville, Ark., Thursday.

Springdale police said the couple identified themselves as Miss Virgie Jewell Humphrey, 34, a native of Brady, Tex., and Elzie Dee Clark, 31, a native of McCool, Miss.

State Police said the man and woman were arrested east of Springdale after they attempted to run a roadblock on Arkansas 68.

There were four bullet holes in the car and a bullet puncture of the left rear tire caused the car to run into a ditch and stop. Police said $2,600 in cash and several $5,000 savings bonds were recovered from the car.

Springdale police said the man and woman were given a preliminary hearing in Springdale Municipal Court before Judge James E. Evans who remanded them into the custody of Madison County Sheriff Fred Crumley.

Police said Prosecutor Oliver Adams of Rogers would file charges of robbery against each of them.
